Hood Components

Unmatched durability and performance.

Designed and engineered with our custom polyurethane formulas for unmatched durability and performance. Built tough for heavy-duty trucks, they won't degrade when exposed to chemicals and weather.

- ATRO polyurethanes are 3-5 times stronger than rubber.
- Resistant to oils, grease, road salt, and other chemicals.
- Specific compounds optimize the performance of each part.

The ATRO Difference—material, function, and design.

We build parts tough for the heavy-duty industry.

Full line of hood components.

- Includes hood latches and hood latch assemblies, mounting bushings, stops, guides, bumpers, insulators, supports, brackets, pivot bushings, hinge bushings, and rollers.

Durability and strength.

- Heavy-duty construction.
- Poly won't degrade when exposed to chemicals and weather.
- Designed for optimal performance and continuous use on trucks.

Industry best warranty.

- You can trust ATRO Parts to perform better and last longer.
